Hello my name is Tizzy. I am a girl. I am a baby cow, the cutest one on the farm! I am black and white with a polka dotted nose. Sometimes I get picked on for it, but my skin is tough, it doesn't bother me. I am a calf, but I feel a lot bigger.

My mom here at the farm, is Tutti Frutti, the llama. I love a lot of attention. I like when kids come and visit me. I check with mom first if I can go play with them. I like my hair combed. I love when I get fed hay, grass or apples from the kids on the farm. They are such a delight.

I am very loved. I think I can barely let the other animals sleep, I love to be around them
THAT MUCH!

I have a crush on Rfaiki, the goat. He is cute with those horns! I love to go on adventures with him. I like his beard because it reminds me of Santa Claus. His eyes shine like the sky!

I recently got a bell around my neck! No it's not to warn the others that I am on the prowl. It is for Tink, who is blind. Tink is my newest bestest friend and that is why I wear the bell so that Tink will follow me around! Once Tink is used to following me around we will be put in the big field with all the other cows. Until then we just roam around the Goat Barn. I love to run around and have Tink chase me, it's a fun game!
